For Your Information

Brothers and sisters: No one can say “Jesus is Lord,” except by the Holy Spirit.

There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.

As a body is one though it has many arts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.~A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians

From the Pastor

By the time you read this, a son of this parish, Father Stephen Battey, will have been ordained a priest of the Diocese of Providence. He will have become a member of a brotherhood that began with the founding of our diocese in 1872 but whose roots stretch back through the centuries to the days of the Apostles. The “job description” of the priest has changed over the ages and adapts itself to some extent to the needs of the age, but its essence remains the same: to preach the gospel and teach the Catholic faith; to build up the Christian community; to sanctify the people through prayer and sacred rites. As of this writing, I do not know what his first assignment will be, but very soon he will begin to experience the “secret of the priesthood.” God bless him and make his work fruitful!

Speaking of priests: We have been gifted with a young priest for the months of July and August. Fr. Nathan Ricci will be home from Rome from his study of Canon Law. He was ordained last year and sent back to Rome to finish his studies, so this will be his first parish assignment and he will join a long list of priests who started their lifetime of service here at St. Francis. I’m sure you will greet him with the same friendly welcome that you have shown to other priests in the past.

Again about priests, and from the sublime to the mundane: I am taking the coming week off. We’ve lined up some local priests to cover the Masses, funerals, anointing, etc. while I’m away. I’ll be back on Friday because I have a wedding rehearsal that evening.

Fr. Bodah

Our June High School Youth night will not be held on June 4th as originally planned due to the first Mass of Fr. Stephen Battey. With finals, Father’s Day and graduations preoccupying a bit of the June schedule, the June Youth Night has been moved to Sunday, June 25th. More details will be forth coming.

SUPPORT THE CATHOLIC COMMUNICATION CAMPAIGN

SECOND COLLECTION, JUNE 10 & 11

Your gifts to the Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC) bring the message of the Gospel to people from all walks of life, all around the world.

Where do your donations go?

Fifty percent of all funds collected remains in your diocese to fund local communications projects. The other half helps to fund national and international programs that use the media to evangelize. In the past year, CCC funds have made possible:

- ♦ TV and e-books to the faithful in five developing countries.
- ♦ 365 days of audio podcasts and video reflections on the daily readings.
- ♦ Over 127 million page views on the USCCB.org website in 2015.
- ♦ Thousands of Catholics engaged daily through social media channels.
- ♦ Millions of people reached . . . And still counting!

By supporting the CCC, you help bring the gospel message to "everyone, without exception," as Pope Francis asks.

"As sons and daughters of God, we are called to communicate with everyone, without exception." ~Pope Francis, Message for 50th World Communications Day, 2016
