FEBRUARY 3, 2013

From the Pastor...

Happily, in spite of the cold weather we have had recently, January has raced by! For someone like me who does not like winter, these months cannot race by fast enough. But at least the days are getting noticeably longer and February will begin to bring signs of spring as we soon begin the season of Lent and also launch into the annual diocesan Catholic Charity Appeal.

Before we begin the penitential time of Lent, we do have one great parish event coming up – our annual Parish Appreciation Dinner. It will take place on Saturday evening, February 9 and will again feature a Mardi Gras theme. This event is our opportunity to thank the many men and women of our parish who actively volunteer and participate in the various ministries of our parish. All of our volunteers should have received a letter of invitation, however there are so many that it is easy to miss someone. So, if you personally give of your time to assist in some parish activity, please call the rectory and let us know if you wish to attend the dinner. We look forward to the opportunity to thank you for your service.

While we have a beautiful parish property, unfortunately our parking area is limited. In order to make the most of the space, for the more highly attended Masses on Sunday, some cars do get blocked in during Mass. For example, in the area near the dumpster, there are several “double depth” spaces that should be used. These spaces will be blocked by other cars and, admittedly, if you park there you may have to wait a few minutes for other people to return to their cars. However, it is important that we use these spaces so that as many people as possible can park near the church. I appreciate your patience, especially when the parking lot is further limited by snow. Thanks for your cooperation on this.

Msgr. Theroux

ANNUAL APPRECIATION DINNER

The annual volunteer appreciation dinner is NEXT Saturday, February 9th at 5:30PM in Father Greenan Center.

Hopefully, by now, you've received your personal invitation to the dinner in the mail.

The Appreciation Dinner is always an enjoyable evening for our parish family, a moment to thank those who do so much—often unseen and unheard—and to celebrate what makes our parish so vibrant and strong.

If you're a volunteer, we hope to see you there! Please call Kelli or Caroline in the main office to let us know you're coming (783-4411). Thank you.

TIDYING UP THE PEWS

Help us keep our church clean and ready for the next Mass by neatly placing the missalettes and pew cards back in the racks. Your assistance will give us less work to do between Masses and the missalettes and pew cards will certainly last longer. Thank you.

Please join our youth group as we explore new opportunities for spiritual growth and fellowship next Sunday night, February 10th, from 7-9pm in the Upper Room of Father Greenan Parish Center.

For more information on the Youth Group, please call Jacqui Bertrand at 789-2473.

Eye on the Saints

February 8th—Saint Josephine Bakhita

She was born about in 1869 in the western Sudanese region of Darfur; was kidnapped between the ages of 7-9 and was forced to walk 600 mi to El Obeid on her bare feet, sold and bought twice before she arrived there. Over the course of twelve years (1877–1889) she was resold again three more times and then given away. It is said that the trauma of her abduction caused her to forget her own name; she took one given to her by the slavers, bakhita, Arabic for lucky. Bakhita was anything but 'lucky'.

While in captivity, she was severely beaten, tortured and purposely scarred with a razor and salt – leaving 114 intricate patterns on her body. Eventually, Bakhita was sold to an Italian Vice Consul Callisto Legnani who treated her with great kindness. For the first time since her captivity she could enjoy some peace and tranquility. When Legnani later returned to Italy, Bakhita begged to go with him. Legnani gave Bakhita as a present to Signora Maria Michieli where she became the nanny to Michieli's daughter Alice, known as Mimmina.

In the process of selling her property so she could move to Sudan permanently with her family, Bakhita and Signora Michieli's daughter were left in the care of the Canossian Sisters of Venice. When Signora Michieli returned to the convent to take Bakhita and her daughter back to their home, Bakhita refused to leave. For a full three days Mrs. Michieli tried to force the issue, but the superior of the institute complained to the authorities on Bakhita's behalf. On 29 November 1889 an Italian court ruled that, because Sudan had outlawed slavery before Bakhita's birth and because in any case Italian law did not recognize slavery, Bakhita had never legally been a slave. Bakhita had now reached the age of maturity; for the first time in her life she found herself in control of her own destiny. And she chose to remain with the Canossians.

Her last years were marked by pain and sickness. She used a wheelchair, but she retained her cheerfulness, and if asked how she was, she would always smile and answer "as the Master desires". Bakhita died at 8:10 PM on 8 February 1947. For three days her body lay on display while thousands of people arrived to pay their respects.

Petitions for her canonization began immediately, and the process officially commenced in 1959, only twelve years after her death. On 1 December 1978, Pope John Paul II declared Josephine Venerable, the first step toward canonization. On 17 May 1992, she was declared Blessed and given February 8 as her feast day. On 1 October 2000, she was canonized and became Saint Josephine Bakhita. She is venerated as a modern African saint, and as a statement against the brutal history of slavery. She has been adopted as the only patron saint of Sudan.

Bakhita's legacy is that transformation is possible through suffering. Her story of deliverance from physical slavery also symbolizes all those who find meaning and inspiration in her life for their own deliverance from spiritual slavery. On a larger scale, however, Bakhita's story of a slave who was forced to convert to Islam and later chose Christianity represents a conflict between Christianity and Islam. In May 1992 news of her beatification was banned by Khartoum which Pope John Paul II then personally visited only nine months later. On 10 February 1993, facing all risks, surrounded by an immense crowd in the huge Green Square of the capital of Sudan, he solemnly honoured Bakhita on her own soil. Rejoice, all of Africa! Bakhita has come back to you. The daughter of Sudan sold into slavery as a living piece of merchandise and yet still free. Free with the freedom of the saints."

Pope Benedict XVI, on 30 November 2007, in the beginning of his second encyclical letter Spe Salvi (In Hope We Were Saved), relates her entire life story as an outstanding example of the Christian hope. Sadly, the suffering of her people in Sudan continues.
