Going About Our Work Peacefully

Just now you are the victim of one of the most dangerous temptations that can assail a well-intentioned soul—the temptation of discouragement. I adjure you to offer every resistance in your power.

Again, God permits our everyday faults only to humiliate us! If you can profit by them and yet remain trusting and at peace, you will be in a better state than you would if you committed no obvious fault and so flattered your self-love greatly, leaving you in grave danger of self-complacency. Actually you can very easily make use of all your faults to become one degree more humble and to dig still more deeply within yourself the one foundation of all true holiness. Ought we not to admire and bless the infinite goodness of God who can thus derive our greatest good from our very faults? All we need do is to have no love for them; after each of our falls to pick ourselves up with tireless persistency, and to go to work peacefully to correct them.

Subject yourself to God's will in the work you do, but do not be too eager and restless. Do honestly what you believe you ought to do, and rely on Providence for success, knowing neither care nor anxiety and thus possessing as far as possible a tranquil heart and unshackled mind. Be faithful in this practice and you shall dwell in peace even in the midst of perplexity; while the involuntary troubles you may encounter will serve only to increase the merit of the fundamental compliance of your will with God's.

FATHER JEAN-PIERRE DE CAUSSADE, S.J.

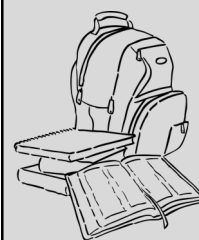

Father de Caussade (†1751) was a French Jesuit priest, a writer, and a revered spiritual director. MAGNIFICAT: Meditation of the Day, Friday, July 29th, 2016

NETWORK'S Nuns on the Bus are hitting the road again—and they're coming to Providence. Throughout the journey, Sister Simone Campbell will be joined by 18 other Catholic sisters for the 13-state tour that includes stops at both the Republican and Democratic Conventions. The Nuns will be calling on elected officials and candidates to "Mend the Gaps" in income and wealth inequality in our nation. Their goal is to bring a politics of inclusion to divided places, change the conversation to mending the vast economic and social divides in our country, and counter political incivility with our message of inclusion.

Be a part of their visit for a community meal at Amos House on Saturday, July 23 from 5-6:15pm, 460 Pine Street, Providence.

THE VISITATION PROGRAM

We are currently making home visits to a few parish households; but we're hoping many more will respond to the need for parish visitors. If you're interested in bearing Christ to others while at the same time being the eyes and ears of Fr. Bodah assessing the pastoral needs of those we visit, call the rectory 783-4411.

Please remember our parish community's outreach and call us to visit those who are unable to attend Mass because of advanced age, handicaps or illness. We'll be happy to visit!

A Eucharistic holy hour for the intentions of The Visitation Program and all those being visited will be held on the First Friday of the month at 4pm at St. Francis Church.

This holy hour will be an hour of silence specifically for the intentions of the ministry. If you'd like to join us and unite your prayers with ours you are most welcome. The parish office will also be accepting prayer intentions by phone. Your intentions will be written in an intention book and prayed for daily by all those involved in this very special ministry. On the First Friday of the month, we will have the intention book present during our holy hour and ask you to lift all those intentions up in prayer.

As we encourage our friends to step out of their own lives and enter into the life of the Church, offering up their prayers and sufferings in union with Christ's sufferings - for the Church and for our parish - we also invite you to step out of your lives and do the same. Please pray daily for the Church, our priests and religious, and specifically for our parish ... for those who are worshipping with us and those who no longer are.

Thank you for your prayerful support of this special ministry.
