For Your Information

SANCTUARY LAMP

This week's sanctuary lamp at St. Francis Church burns in memory of John McPhillips.

MAY DEVOTIONS

Please join us for the Rosary, Monday-Friday throughout the month of May, at Saint Romuald Chapel at 7PM.

FOOD OF THE MONTH

Peanut butter, jelly and lunch snacks.

BIBLE STUDY

A big thank you to all who participated in St. Francis Church's Ignatian Bible Study which met every Tuesday this past fall and spring. It is a wonderful opportunity to study Sacred Scripture. We are grateful for the support of the parish and the summary of our study on the Letter to the Hebrews given by Fr. Joseph Upton on our final evening. We hope to resume this fall.

FROM THE PASTOR...

This weekend we celebrate the great Feast of Pentecost recalling the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the apostles. Pentecost is called the “birthday of the Church” because on that day the disciples who were enlightened and empowered by the Spirit began their mission to preach and baptize in the Lord’s name. That ministry has continued without interruption to our day. All of us who are Confirmed have likewise received the same gifts of the Holy Spirit and we are entrusted with the responsibility not only to live our faith, but to pass it on as well. On this Pentecost, let us all pray that the Holy Spirit will strengthen and guide us as individuals and as a parish community.

Among the many ways that Confirmed Catholics can assist the parish community is by serving as a Reader or an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion at Mass. Given the number of Masses we have on the weekend, we have to have a substantial number of lay ministers in order to have a reasonable rotation that is not overly taxing on any individual. Therefore, we are looking for parishioners who are to serve in these important liturgical roles. There will be training sessions to prepare those who are chosen. If you are interested or would like more information, please call the parish office or speak with Father Upton or me.

Several people have asked when we will resume distribution of the Precious Blood at Holy Communion. As you know we stopped during the flu season and, until recently, there were still a lot of people with colds and other bugs. Since we were not using the chalices, we took advantage of the opportunity to have them re-finished because the gold plating on the inside of the cups was showing wear. Unfortunately, when they were returned, we were not satisfied so they are again being re-plated. In any case, we will resume distribution of the Precious Blood in the church as soon as the chalices are returned to us. At St. Romuald’s Chapel, we will resume distribution of the cup next weekend at the 10 AM Mass.

Next weekend, Memorial Day Weekend our summer season begins at St. Romuald Chapel. From then until Labor Day weekend our chapel schedule will be confessions on Saturday at 4:45 PM and Mass at 5:30 PM as well as 8:00 and 10:00 AM on Sunday morning. We look forward to welcoming back all of our summer visitors – you are an important part of our Parish Community.

Come Holy Spirit

Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created. And You shall renew the face of the earth.

O, God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit, did instruct the hearts of the faithful, grant that by the same Holy Spirit we may be truly wise and ever enjoy His consolations, Through Christ Our Lord, Amen.

Proclaiming God's Word: A Call for New Readers

We are accustomed to the power of words—they can harm or help, hurt or heal. Imagine how much more powerful is God's Word. The Second Vatican Council taught that when the Scriptures are proclaimed at Mass, God himself is speaking to his people. Why not consider allowing God to use YOU as he proclaims his Word to his people? By serving as a Reader at Mass, you assume the role of the Old Testament prophets, allowing God's Word to be heard by a people starving for Good News. The requirements are simple: candidates must be Confirmed, practicing Catholics in good standing and be willing to read aloud audibly and clearly in front of a crowd. Training sessions will be offered to familiarize new readers with the microphone and the liturgical books. Workbooks with commentary on the readings, pronunciation guides, and proclamation pointers are provided for each reader. In order to have enough coverage for each Mass, including back-up replacements, more readers are especially needed at this time. Please speak with one of our parish clergy to learn more about the possibility of serving in this important role.

An Office of Immense Love: A Call for New Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

From week to week, Jesus feeds us with his Body and Blood. Due to the large number of communicants, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion assist the parish clergy in distributing Communion to the faithful at each parish Mass. Pope Paul VI once called this important role an "office of immense love." We are looking for Confirmed, practicing Catholics in good standing—with a deep devotion to Jesus in the Eucharist—to assist with this important ministry. Training sessions will be offered to familiarize candidates with the procedures and practicalities of this ministry. Because we will soon resume the distribution of the Precious Blood at parish Masses, an additional number of Extraordinary Ministers will be required for scheduling. Please speak with one of our parish clergy to learn more about the possibility of serving in this important role.
