CALL US IF YOU'D LIKE YOUR LOVED ONE VISITED

At a time when our family, friends, and neighbors are dealing with difficulties, St. Francis wants you to remember our parish's community outreach services. We can send a SFF (St. Francis Friend) to visit a loved one and provide encouragement, comfort, quality time, and the Holy Eucharist. Please reflect on those who are unable to attend Mass because of advanced age, handicaps, or illness and call us to arrange a visit at 401-783-4411.

MAY DEVOTIONS

QUO VADIS DAYS

"Quo Vadis" is a Latin phrase for "Where are you going?" Legend tells us that St. Peter asked Jesus this questions on the outskirts of Rome. Quo Vadis Days is a day camp hosted by the Office of Vocations for young Catholic boys to deepen their faith, learn more about vocations, and begin to discern God's will in their lives. The three-day camp will run July 6-8 from 8:30am-4:00pm at the Seminary of Our Lady of Providence. To register or for more information, please contact Fr. Chris Murphy at 331-1316 or FatherCJM@gmail.com.

From the Pastor

Several things: First of all, congratulations to our seminarian Stephen Battey, who will be ordained to the diaconate this coming Saturday, May 28, at 10 a.m. at the cathedral in Providence, to which all are invited. Next Sunday, he will preach for the first time at the 8 a.m. Mass at the chapel and the 11 a.m. at the church. He has been assigned to St. Margaret's parish in the Rumford section of East Providence, full-time for the summer and on a more limited basis for the coming year. Please God, he'll be ordained to the priesthood next summer and given his first priestly assignment at that time. Steve has been a faithful parishioner here since his childhood and we wish him all the best as he reaches this milestone on his journey of service to the Lord and his Church.

Second: don't forget that next weekend we start the summer schedule: 4:30, 9 & 11 at the church; 5:30, 8 & 10 at the chapel.

Third: those who have been attending the 8 or 10 a.m. Mass in the church will have probably noticed that one or two people approach the sanctuary after communion to be given the Blessed Sacrament to take to the sick. At the 8, one person goes to South County Hospital (there is a small cadre of people who take turns from week to week) and another, May Tran, goes each week to Scallop Shell nursing home. May is accompanied by her son, Ben, who has served the parish for many years as an altar boy and now as a lector, and they visit all the Catholics and bring them the parish bulletin as well as the communion. At the 10, another rotating cadre takes communion to the residents of Brightview Commons. I would urge you to accompany them with your prayers as they perform this beautiful ministry of bringing the Eucharist to those who can no longer be with us in person. God bless the work!

It's important for them to train hard and play every game with their best effort, with EXCELLENCE! Becoming a Champion in our Faith is no different, with Jesus being our Head Coach. We can learn so many awesome things from HIM, since He's the Greatest of All CHAMPIONS! We need to train hard to become the best Christians we can be: Champions for Christ! Jesus wants us to live out His game plan so that we can win the ultimate victory prize which is Heaven.
