Our Joy Become Complete in Mary

This holy life which Jesus continually pours out on Mary, this divine life with which he endows her and with which he animates her, loving, praising and adoring in her God his Father considering her as a worthy addition of his heart, and in which he expands with pleasure. The whole of Jesus' life and all his love in the rest of the Church, and even in his apostles and in his most cherished disciples, is nothing in comparison to what he is in Mary's heart. He lives there in fullness, and he acts in all his divine spirit. He is but one heart, one soul, one life with her. There is nothing more admirable than this union, this holy and mysterious unity. It is something which in its consummation, cannot be understood and what is consoling about it is, that this masterpiece is to last forever.

O how adorable Jesus is in his Mother!

One cannot understand what he is in her and in what manner God lets him be for her and makes himself present in all her being. It is a work of faith, and the more faith there is, so too is it more holy and divine, and the more it gives to be relished in the intimacy of the soul. It is an abyss of love and charity which cannot be imagined; for one cannot know the extent of the love Jesus has towards Mary, nor the strength and purity of Mary's love for Jesus. ...

I desire with all my heart that the divine Mother finishes her work in you for all eternity, and that she will always keep you lost in her so that you will not be capable to act for yourself and that neither Satan, the world, nor any creature will find to wound your heart which has to be inviolably in imitation of Mary.

~ Father Jean-Jacques Olier

Father Olier (+1657) was a French priest who founded the Sulpicians. – Excerpt taken from MAGNIFICAT: Meditation of the Day for May 7, 2016, pp. 117-118.

FREEDOM TREE CEREMONY

AT MSGR. CLARKE SCHOOL

THURSDAY, MAY 26, 2016 AT 10AM

Forty-three years ago, a friend of the Monsignor Clarke School family was listed as missing in action (MIA) at the height of the Vietnam War. The tree that proudly stands in front of the school today was planted in 1973 in his honor with hope that he would return alive. In 2007, his remains were identified and escorted home by his son. Memorial Day gives our communities – parishes, schools and families – an opportunity to re-focus on the men and women who secured our freedom. On May 26th, Monsignor Clarke School will rededicate the tree in honor of our local heroes. Please join us to help teach our children how we live out this important corporal work of mercy by honoring those who have lost their lives or are still missing. A reception will follow RSVP to Sara Marshall at 789-0860 or smarshall@monsignorclarkeschool.org
