From the Pastor

As I wrote last week, this weekend we're saying good-bye to Kelli McNulty with gratitude for her years of loyal service to the parish. Many, many thanks as well to all who organized the receptions and prepared the food and drink. Kelli has received the official notice of her date of entry into the Sisters of the Visitation of Holy Mary: September 26. Our prayers go with her, as her prayers will remain with us in the years to come.

This week, we welcome a new secretary, Mrs. Jacqueline Hunt. Jacki Folcarelli was baptized and raised in this parish and married her husband, Steve Hunt, here in 1971. Except for the year and a half that they lived in Abilene, Kansas, at the military base where Steve was then assigned, she has lived her whole life here in South Kingstown. The Hunts have two children and three grandchildren.

Jackie has been working in church-oriented jobs for the last 16 years, so comes to us well-qualified for the position of parish secretary. For 12 years she was the secretary at Immaculate Conception Academy, a private school operated by Regnum Christi, a branch of the Legionaries of Christ, here in Wakefield. Since the academy closed four years ago, she has been running the offices of the parish of Sts. John and James in West Warwick.

We wish her many happy years!

We are also in the process of training a new bookkeeper, about whom more in another column.

Next weekend is Catechetical Sunday and the religious education teachers will be blessed at the 10 o'clock Mass. If you're interested in teaching in the program, please contact the religious education office and speak to Barbette Cullen for the lower grades or Diane Castro for grades 7 and 8. God bless the work!

What can I do to be of service to my parish ... One thing you can do is help children to know and love the Lord. This is a golden opportunity to help St Francis of Assisi's children who are seeking to learn about God. Catechists are needed for 7th and 8th grade on Wednesdays from 7:00-8:15pm.

Please stand up and say "HERE I AM, LORD" since HE is the one calling YOU!

The qualifications needed are: weekly participation at Sunday Eucharist, a generous heart, enjoyment of young people, and a willingness to share your faith. Training and assistance are provided.

Please call Barbette Cullen or Diane Castro at 792-8684 for more information.
